BRIDGE CAVE-IN CAUSES ACCIDENT

Machine of John Keir, New York City, Tumbles Twelve Feet at Seven Stars.

ONE MAN IS BADLY HURT

James Kier and Evan Harris, Miraculously Escape Injury. Enroute from Texas to New York.

Three men had a miraculous escape from death when the parapet of the little bridge east of Seven Stars on the Lincoln Highway gave way and their five passenger Reo car turned completely over falling a distance of about twelve feet.

John W. Keir, of New York City, who was driving the machine, badly dislocated his jaw and was cut severely about the face and head. His brother, James N. Keir, also of New York City, who was riding in the back seat, and Evan Harris, of Wichita Falls, Texas, who was sitting in front beside the driver, escaped uninjured although they were beneath the car when it fell.

The tourists were traveling from Wichita Falls, Texas, to New York City, and had come about 3000 miles without an accident when they were stopped as they approached the bridge a short distance east of the Western Maryland railroad crossing at Seven Stars.

As this bridge is now in process of repair there is a temporary structure to one side for the purpose of allowing cars to pass, but a truck had been stuck there and in order for the Keir machine to get through it was necessary for them to pass over the bridge under construction.

"You have about a six inch clearance", said one of the workmen to Mr. Keir, "and you will have to drive carefully". Proceeding with great caution the car commenced to cross the bridge when the parapet gave way allowing the road to cave in and the car to tumble over into the ditch below.

Workmen at once raised the machine to allow the men to crawl out but John W. Keir was unconscious and had to be carried to a machine and rushed to a physician in Gettysburg. It was reported by the attending physician at 2:00 o'clock this afternoon that no internal trouble had been discovered.

The three men left this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock for Harrisburg to secure further medical aid for John Keir.

On commenting about the accident and their miraculous escape, one of the men said that his first impulse was to jump but that he was glad he stayed in the car as it would have fallen on him and probably crushed him.

This is the second accident to happen at that section of the Lincoln Highway within a month. On June 19 Lieutenant W. E. Glesner, of Friedensburg, suffered laceration of the groin when his touring car turned turtle a few feet west of the bridge. Lieutenant Glesner and his brother were returning home after attending commencement exercises at Franklin and Marshall College.

BOYS DISAPPEAR

Youngsters Told Conflicting Stories. Do not Live in Baltimore.

David Jones, aged 11, and Perry Jones, aged 8, who told W. H. Tipton on Monday that they missed the train here because they wanted to buy candy, have mysteriously disappeared and it is believed that they boarded the afternoon train for Baltimore.

The boys, who seemed to possess unlimited confidence in themselves, to combat the world despite their ages, slipped away from the Tipton residence about 4:00 o'clock and were last seen playing around the station.

Word from Baltimore has revealed the fact that they do not live at Twelfth street in Highlandtown but are residents of Scranton.

COUNCIL ASKS FOR NEW BRIDGE

Borough Highway Committee Appeared Before County Commissioners.

TO CONSIDER PROPOSITION

Town Officials Discuss Street Paving at Adjourned Meeting. Will not Need Government's Consent.

Highway Committee of the Town Council accompanied by their attorney appeared before Adams County's Commissioners this morning and requested them to build a new bridge over Rock Creek on the Lincoln Highway at the eastern edge of Gettysburg.

The Commissioners said that several important matters were on hand, including the building of new bridges on the Harrisburg and Biglerville roads and the improvement of the Carlisle, which would cost the county considerable money but that they were in favor of the progressive spirit shown in many other sections of the state and country and would give the proposition full consideration and take definite action either this afternoon or at next Tuesday's meeting.

At an adjourned meeting of the Town Council on Monday night it was explained that Mr. White, of the State Highway Department, who recently examined the bridge, said that it was "an old country back road structure and a disgrace to any progressive community" and that his department refused to build road within three hundred feet of the structure.

Mr. White was informed to go ahead and construct the Lincoln Highway from the borough limits on Buford street west of town to within three hundred feet of the Rock Creek bridge and in the meantime steps would be taken to have the county agree to construct a new structure as the turnpike to New Oxford had been condemned and the cost of building a bridge would fall upon the county.

The matter of securing the permission of the War Department to allow West Confederate avenue to be cut away two and one-half feet to meet the grade at the Lincoln Highway has been dispensed with as the State Highway engineers have decided that it is not necessary to cut away the hill but only to grade back to meet the avenue.

After the survey of the Lincoln Highway through Gettysburg the State Highway Department discovered that they would be unable to meet the grade at some places and it will be necessary for the borough to do some filling in work.

The Light Committee was instructed to communicate with the Hanover Heat and Power Company which furnishes Gettysburg with electric light and tell them that unless better service is given in the future the borough would erect their own light plant.

It was stated that the twenty five cent gas "ready to serve rate" was justifiable here as information from the Public Service Commission proved that other places are charging more and that this additional monthly cost was brought about not by government tax but by high cost of material and the Gas Company is entitled to it.

MORE MISSION CHILDREN

Will be Guests of County Lutheran Churches.

In response to requests from Lutheran churches of Biglerville, Arendtsville and Bendersville and the northern section of Adams County a second group of about seventy five Brooklyn Inner Mission children will be brought here on the 13th of August by Rev. V. A. M. Mortensen, superintendent of the mission and in charge of the ninety eight children at present in Gettysburg as the guests of the St. James Lutheran congregation.

On Friday night the children will gather at the Gettysburg Academy grounds to be taken for an automobile ride and then returned for an ice cream treat.

RECORD RAINFALL FOR PAST WEEK

Five and One-Half Inches Fell in Nine Days. Total of 6.50 for Month.

ACCURATE READINGS KEPT

Rainfall in 1916 Reached Highway Mark with 8.09 Inches. Fruit Little Damaged.

Five and one-half inches of rain fell from July 12 to July 21 in Gettysburg which is more than has fallen during any entire month of July in the last fourteen years with the exception of 1916 and 1908.

Rain came down to the depth of one inch from the beginning of the month to the twelfth making a total of 6.50 inches for twenty one days which breaks the record of any thirty one July days since 1905 excepting 1916 with its mark of 8.09. In 1908 the July record was 6.24.

Unless rain continues to fall from now until the end of the month with as great frequency as from the twelfth to the twenty first it is not likely that the 1916 July mark will be exceeded this year.

Last year 4.44 inches fell which was less than the mark of 4.92 for 1917. In the last fourteen years the lowest mark that has been reached for July was .58 inches in 1909; 1910 is second with 1.87.

Calculations by Colonel E. B. Cope, civil engineer for the National Park Commission, show that the following amount of rain fell during the months of July from 1905 to 1919:

1905—4.90 inches, 1906—2.85, 1907—4.79, 1908—6.24, 1909—.85, 1910—1.87, 1911—2.17, 1912—4.52, 1913—3.87, 1914—4.17, 1915—2.82, 1916—8.09, 1917—4.92, 1918—4.44, 1919—first to twelfth—1.00 inch; twelfth to twenty first 5.50 inches.

Adams County crops were not damaged to as great an extent as

JOLT FOR HIGH COST OF LIVING

Surplus Army Supplies May be Bought at Cost in Gettysburg.

BURGESS RECEIVES OFFER

War Department Asks Co-Operation of Borough Officials. Means Twenty Per Cent Below Cost.

The high cost of living in Gettysburg has been given a severe jolt.

Army supplies, consisting of canned meat and vegetables, can be procured by the residents of Gettysburg at actual cost from the government. This information was received by Burgess James Eicholtz, Monday, from the Zone Supply Officer at the Baltimore depot. The letter says:

"The Secretary of War has authorized us to sell at Government cost, and in some cases at less than Government cost, to municipalities which will avail themselves of the opportunity. Army supplies, which may be surplus at time requisitions are made, in carload lots.

"If you are interested in aiding your community in reducing the high cost of living, we shall be glad to co-operate with you. Full information and details as to the operation of this plan will be given by the undersigned to those who desire to co-operate."

In Harrisburg it has been announced that the purchase price of these commodities will be twenty per cent less than the amount paid for them by the government and that the canned goods are available in great quantities.

According to statements made by officials the only way that food stuffs can be obtained for the people is through borough authorities and the borough cannot assume the responsibility for the condition or quality of the goods since it would only be acting as an agent of the War Department. In various cities in the State the plan has been put into operation. Orders are placed through city officials and are accompanied by cash; nothing is sold on credit. Limits have been placed on the size of the individual order.

An Altoona report says that both bacon and canned goods are being sold at about half the current prices in the stores. Buyers for the government commodities have been so great that it was impossible to supply the demand.

No action has yet been taken by local borough officials.

REAL WILD WEST BANK ROBBERY

Two Bandits Stage Daring Hold-Up at Walkersville Monday.

BURGLARS CAUGHT LATER

One Confesses. Armed Posse Pursues Men in Automobiles and Thieves are Cornered.

Two young men apparently 25 years old, robbed the Walkersville Savings Bank, at Walkersville, six miles north of Frederick, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at point of revolvers, of $3,217. The men entered the bank, one in front of the other, covered Cashier Edwin Devilbiss and Assistant Cashier Nelson Stauffer, with revolvers of large caliber, tossed the cashier a hand satchel and ordered him to fill it with all the money in sight.

Norman Ogle, about 24 years old, of near Frederick, and a man about the same age giving his name as Rinehart, from Baltimore, were arrested late Monday night in New London and identified by Assistant Cashier Nelson Stauffer as the holdup men. They were closely pressed by more than 100 armed men and Norman Ogle walked in a store and purchased a bottle of pop. The men asked an automobile to allow them to ride to Frederick. On their way they were stopped by motor officer Charles W. Smith. About $100 was found in their possession.

Both were surly, but Ogle finally confessed and took the officer and the state's attorney to a point near where the automobile was abandoned to get the stolen money. Ogle is a son of William Ogle, near Frederick, and was committed to a reform school in Baltimore about four years ago. Subsequently he escaped from the institution.

ANNIVERSARY OF COUNTY COMPANY

Twenty One Years Ago Unit was Recruited here for Spanish War.

GAVE THEM BIG SEND OFF

Company Composed of 106 Men and Three Officers was Trained at Chickamauga, Georgia.

Twenty one years ago on Monday, Company M, recruited in Adams County for the Spanish American War, left Gettysburg.

The Company was mustered into the service on Wednesday evening, July 20, 1898, about 9:00 o'clock in Centre Square, in the presence of a large crowd of citizens and friends, by Captain Taylor, of the 5th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry and assigned to the same regiment.

On July 21st, the day following the muster, the company left Gettysburg by special train at 4 o'clock for Chickamauga, Georgia, amidst the ringing of bells, blowing of whistles and firing of cannon.

The company was recruited up to full war strength with 106 men. The commissioned officers in command were: Captain Evan Russell, Williamsport; First Lieutenant Ross Hickok, Harrisburg; Second Lieutenant Charles T. Zeigler, Gettysburg.

Of the one hundred and six men who left with the company, the following are yet living in Adams County, according to one of the company members:

Second Lieutenant, C. T. Zeigler, Sergeant G. Harry Roth, Corporal James Wise, George E. Shields, John A. Mumper, William J. Koch and James W. McDonnell, of Gettysburg; James G. McIlhenny and William J. Noel, of Straban township; John I. Lawrence, McSherrytown; Clarence J. Musselman, Fairfield; Ralph T. Sandoe, Butler township, and John W. Zecher, Littlestown.

The regiment was assigned to the First Brigade, Third Division, First Army Corps. On August 12, 1898, the regiment moved about one mile and encamped on higher ground where the elevated position gave them better drainage.

On August 22, 1898, the regiment left Rossville and traveled by rail to Camp Hamilton, near Lexington, Kentucky, and on September 17th, was granted a thirty days' furlough and each company directed to proceed to its home station. After the expiration of the furlough, ten days were given for muster out, and this time was extended to an additional twenty days to give an opportunity to participate in the Peace Jubilee at Philadelphia, on October 27, 28, 29 and 30, 1898. The regiment was finally mustered out November 11th, 1898, in Gettysburg.

In recruiting the National Guard after they were mustered into the United States service, up to full war strength, Adams and Fulton Counties were authorized to recruit one company to be known as Company M, of the 4th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry. Adams was to furnish sixty six and Fulton County forty men, but when the company was to be mustered, Fulton County did not furnish any men, and Company M, of Pottstown, was assigned to the Fourth.

Time was extended to Company M, of Adams County, one week and if at the expiration of one week the required number of men could not be obtained, the organization of a company in Adams County would be annulled.

This delay prevented the company from seeing service in Porto Rico, as the Fourth regiment to which it was originally assigned, arrived at Ponce, Porto Rico, on August 2, 1898, and arrived back in the United States on the 6th of September, 1898.

CAPITAL SEES BLOODY CLASHES

Whites Join Police in Quelling Negroes on Rampage. Four Known Dead.

AUTHORITIES HELPLESS

Negro Attacks on White Women Cause Fighting. Scores are Wounded. Many Arrested.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, July 22—Another night of race rioting found the national capital to-day counting the largest casualty list it has had since soldiers, sailors, Marines and civilians began retaliating on the negro population for the long list of daylight hold-ups and attacks on white women which had taken place in the city.

Four known dead, two mortally wounded, eight or more seriously wounded and unknown numbers slightly wounded or injured in the fighting are in police stations, hospitals and other places as a result of the greatest disorder the national capital has seen probably since the Civil War.

Although reinforced with provost guards of troops and squadrons of cavalry, patrolling Pennsylvania avenue, the police apparently were as unable to cope with the situation as they were during the celebrated demonstration of March 3, 1913, when the crowd completely overran them and all but mobbed the suffragists parading on Pennsylvania avenue.

The score in last night's fighting was largely in favor of the negroes who when the extra strong cordon of police and troops quieted Pennsylvania avenue and the downtown section transferred their activities to the lesser guarded districts.

From trolley cars and swiftly moving automobiles, negroes dispatched in parties, singly and in pairs, fired revolver shots into groups of whites when they found them. Whites were also fired upon from houses in which negroes terror stricken but not quelled had barricaded themselves.

To-day the local authorities are conferring with the War Department officials on measures to stop the rioting.

In a statement to-day, the board of Commissioners, the governing authority of the District of Columbia, said that at no time last night was the situation beyond the control of the authorities and that with the aid of the military and the co-operation of citizens the police would remain in control.

The first police report of the day told of another white woman being assaulted and injured by a negro at Capitol Heights, a suburb to the northeast of the city. The woman was practically disrobed in her struggle with her assailant who escaped after she had scratched and bit him. This was the seventh attack on a white woman by negro men in and near the District of Columbia within two weeks.

When some 175 cases of negroes arrested during the riot were called to-day in the police court, maximum sentences of one year imprisonment and $500 fine were imposed on all carrying concealed weapons while those charged only with disorderly conduct escaped with a $35 fine.

New York, July 22—Selling of stocks for both accounts was resumed at the opening of to-day's session on the stock exchange with declines of one to two points among some of the leaders although the movement was not altogether downward.

Vigorous rallies set in, however, causing short interests to cover hastily. The rebound was led by oils, steel, motors, and their accessories, equipment and shipping. The extent of the rally ranged from two to seven points, trading becoming more active and broader as the market improved.

RIGHT TO STORE LIQUOR WINS

Dry Forces Defeat All Opposition in Enforcement Fight.

DRASTIC PROVISIONS IN Measure is Adopted Section by Section. January 16 Date Set for Constitutional Prohibition.

Washington, July 22.—The prohibition enforcement bill, drastic provisions and all, was adopted Monday, section by section, by the House, but a man's right to store liquor in his home stood up against all attacks. On the final count only three votes were recorded in favor of an amendment to make home possession of intoxicants unlawful.

After all perfecting amendments had been adopted and others designed to make the bill less severe were bowled over in a chorus of "noes," an attempt was made to adjourn overnight. This prevailed, but there was a demand for a roll-call, and the prohibition forces, summoned from all sides by their leaders, piled into the chamber in sufficient numbers to keep the House in session Monday night for the tedious roll-call vote on a half-dozen amendments in dispute which had to be passed on before a vote was taken on the bill as a whole.

Demand for a formal reading of the engrossed bill which was not in shape for that purpose, forced adjournment of the House Monday night and delayed its passage until to-day.

Double Punishment

The first fight of the day was over the section giving the courts the right to put under bond a person convicted of violating the liquor law. This was stricken out after Representative Gard, Democrat, Ohio, had pointed out that it provided double punishment for the poor man, who might be sent to jail. The vote was 83 to 66, many prohibitionists opposing its retention.

When the House reached section 35 of the bill, dealing with enforcement of constitutional prohibition and which contained the provision that it was not unlawful to store liquor at home for personal use, the scene was not unlike that on a stock market on a high-sales day. Everybody wanted to speak or offer an amendment, fully a score clamoring for recognition at once.

First consideration, as a matter of parliamentary right, was given Chairman Volstead, of the Judiciary Committee, in charge of the bill, who had two amendments. These fixed the time for reporting possession of intoxicants. In one Mr. Volstead offered, and which the House accepted, the time specified in the proclamation by the State Department as to the effective date of constitutional prohibition—January 16, 1920—was accepted without discussion. Representative Rubey, Democrat, of Missouri, got the floor after Chairman Volstead was through with the section, and immediately he announced intention to throw the searchlight on American wine cellars, reported to be stocked with liquors enough to last for generations. His amendment provided that a person should not possess more than $50 worth of liquor, which a member likened to "one white chip in a steamboat poker game," considering the high cost of the product in the closing days of the bar. The House did not take kindly to this proposal and defeated it.

With this out of the way, Representative Baker, Democrat, Cal., offered what the House had been waiting for—an amendment to make it unlawful to have liquor in one's own dwelling. Chairman Volstead opposed it, saying this section had been given very serious consideration by friends of prohibition. When the vote was called, three members, all of them Democrats, supported the amendment—Mr. Baker, and Representatives Blanton, Texas, and Upshaw, Georgia, the latter an evangelist.

MEXICO LAX

Says Ambassador Fletcher. No Prosecutions for Americans Murdered.

(By Associated Press) Washington, July 22.—Henry T. Fletcher, ambassador to Mexico, told the House Rules Committee to-day that since his appointment three years ago about fifty Americans had been killed in Mexico without a single prosecution being made by the Mexican authorities.

Ambassador Fletcher said he had not noticed any special anti-American feeling in Mexico and explained that the presence of more American citizens there than of any other foreign population probably accounted for the greater number of outrages affecting Americans.

BALLOON BURSTS IN HEART OF CITY

Ten Die in Chicago when Huge Gas Bag Explodes. Panic Followed.

Chicago, July 22.—Ten persons were killed and 25 injured when a large dirigible balloon on its test flight caught fire and fell 500 feet, crashing through the glass roof of the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, Jackson Boulevard and La Salle street, at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Most of the dead were employees of the bank, trapped and burned to death in a fire caused by the explosion of the balloon's gasoline tanks as they hit the floor of the bank rotunda, where more than 200 bookkeepers and clerks, nearly all girls, were working.

The balloon, owned by the Good-year Tire and Rubber Company of Akron, O., had been flying above the city for several hours when the accident occurred.

When approximately 500 feet above the bank a spurt of flame was seen to shoot from the top of the gas bag, near the center of the aircraft. The crowds gathered on the streets to watch the flight saw the machine buckle and quiver as it started on its fatal plunge.

Four of its occupants jumped, and two landed safely in the streets as the blimp, a ball of flame, struck the roof of the bank with a crash audible throughout the downtown district.

There was nothing to warn the hundreds of employees of the institution of the coming tragedy. A shadow passed over the marble rotunda where 150 were busy, and a crash followed. The bank's closing hour for patrons had passed, but the clerks were still at work in various departments.

It seemed, according to the survivors, that the entire bank was on fire. Breaking through the iron supports holding the glass overhead, the fuselage of the balloon with two heavy rotary engines and several gasoline tanks smashed to the floor.

Instantly the tanks exploded, scattering a wave of flaming gasoline over the workers for a radius of 50 feet. A panic ensued. There were only two exits through which they could leave the wire cage which surrounded the rotunda.

Men and girls, with clothing flaming, fought their way through the exits. Girls on the second floor ran screaming to the windows and several jumped to the street.

In an instant the marble rotunda was cleared except for the dead, whose bodies were buried under the mass of debris and the dying, who crawled away from the scorching fire, their clothes burning off.

CLOUDBURST DOES DAMAGE

Railroad Tracks Washed Out in Storm at Hazleton.

Hazleton, Pa., July 22.—Sections of the Hazleton and Mahanoy division of the Lehigh Valley Railroad were washed out Sunday afternoon between this city and Weatherly when a cloudburst swept that section.

At Weatherly the streets were under from eighteen to twenty four inches of water, a heavy rainfall earlier in the day having filled drains and streams. Several properties in the town were badly wrecked by the rush of water and gardens and streets were washed out.

Traffic on the railroad was delayed three to four hours by the detours necessitated by the washouts.

During the storm lightning struck a tank containing 72,000 gallons of oil at the Hudsons station of the Tidewater Pine Line Oil Company near Weatherly causing a fire that resulted in a $30,000 loss.

MANY SHOT DOWN IN CAPITAL RIOT

Nineteen Officials Killed in Clash with Negroes is Report.

FIGHT IN STREET CARS

Night of Terror in Washington. Negroes and Whites in all-Night Fight.

Baltimore, July 22.—Seventeen Washington policemen and two detectives were killed in Sunday night's race riots, according to a statement made over the telephone from Washington Police Headquarters, to Lieutenant Carey, acting night marshal, of the Baltimore Police Department.

At midnight Monday night the known casualty list in Washington's race war totaled 10, including two deaths and two men probably dying, while unconfirmed, but police reports placed the number at a much greater figure. Of the dead one was a city detective, shot through the breast by a negro woman who was firing indiscriminately from the upper story of her house.

The negress, a girl about 17 years, also was shot, but not fatally. In another part of the city a black, firing from a garage door, kept a provost guard of soldiers, sailors and Marines at bay for several minutes, but finally was shot down.

Many clashes occurred between whites and blacks on street cars. One negro, attacked on the back end of a car, fired into the crowd following the car and wounded four persons, but finally was stopped by a city detective who was reported to have sent seven bullets into the negro's body. Each of the four white men was only slightly wounded.

The fighting at midnight had resolved largely to fighting between small groups and in one of these encounters a Marine was reported to have been killed. Although service men had taken part in the early clashes, the most serious were those in which the mobs were made up of civilians.

Fights in Street Cars

Rioting between negroes and whites broke out late Monday night in the national capital in retaliation for recent attacks by blacks on white women and at 11:30 o'clock one negro had been killed and four persons wounded.

Police stations late Monday night were swamped with reports of clashes between mobs of whites, largely made up of soldiers, sailors and Marines, and negroes in many different sections of the city. One negro killed was struck on the head by a Marine during one of the numerous fights on street cars.

Reports to police headquarters said street cars had been stoned in various parts of the city, the assailants being both whites and negroes. One negro was shot, but not fatally, after a mob had boarded a street car, and in the ensuing fight two city detectives were wounded slightly.

Washington, July 22.—Crowds, which moved up and down Pennsylvania avenue between the Capitol and the White House despite the presence in the city of two troops of cavalry and 400 other armed service men, grew more determined as the night wore on and outbreaks were reported more frequently.

A mob, composed largely of civilians, according to the police, cornered a negro and in the fight that followed the black was shot and his skull crushed by the butt of a gun.

DRASTIC BILL PASSED

Dry Strong and Enforcement Measure Wins Easily.

(By Associated Press) Washington, July 22.—The prohibition enforcement bill designated by members of the House opposed to it as drastic enough to bring the President's veto, was passed to-day by the House. The vote was taken after a motion for re-commitment was defeated. There was so much noise during the roll call that Representative Mondell was recorded as favoring the measure. He was afterward permitted to change his vote. The official vote was 287-101.

TAXES MORE'N INCOME

LADY DAVID BEATTY
Lady Beatty, who is the wife of the British admiral and the daughter of the late Marshall Field of Chicago, pays more in taxes than her annual income amounts to. She's taxed 60 per cent on her income in the United States because it is in excess of $200,000, and 50 per cent in Great Britain. So $200,000 of income costs her $210,000 in taxes.

HUN BETRAYERS HERE FOR SAFETY

Sold Out German Government. Now have Fear of Vendetta.

Washington, D. C., July 22.—A story of the betrayal of the German High Command through the efforts of the American military secret service and of the organization among German officers of a vendetta aimed at the lives of the traitors was brought to light with the arrival at New York, Monday, of "two German prisoners of war consigned to the Director of Military Intelligence, Washington, D. C."

According to information here, the mysterious prisoners who landed from the Agamemnon under heavy guard formerly were German officers of high rank, occupying positions of great responsibility under Von Hindenburg. Before the inauguration of the American military intelligence Corps prevailed upon them through inducements which have not yet been divulged, to deliver plans of the German General Staff covering the proposed movements on the Western front, probable lines of retreat, points at which stands would be made and other detailed information of inestimable value.

With these plans before him, General Pershing was able to lay out his campaign with great freedom and it is believed the result was to cut the cost of the American advance practically in half.

The German officers later surrendered themselves to the American forces. Certain of their former associates had become suspicious, however, and are believed to be banded together to mete out stern justice. Utmost precautions were taken even within the Allied lines to protect the informers, but as officials believed that as long as they were kept in France their lives would be in danger, orders were given for their transfer to this country.

Preparations for the moving of the prisoners were kept a close secret and it was only through carelessness of some clerk that they were included in the roster of the Agamemnon when she left France.

The plan was to send the prisoners to some isolated army post where they might be given military protection for a time. Eventually, it is supposed, they would have been permitted to "escape" to some other country, there to begin their lives anew. Officials will not say whether this plan can be safely followed now.

JACOB ECKERT INJURED

Hampton Hotel Man Thrown from Horse.

Jacob A. Eckert, proprietor of the Hampton hotel, was seriously injured about 9 o'clock Monday night, when he was thrown from a horse which he was exercising. The girth of the saddle broke and the man was thrown to the ground while the horse was running. The animal tramped on Mr. Eckert's back, injuring his spine. He was carried to his home, a short distance away, in an unconscious condition. The extent of the injury was not ascertained at a late hour last night, but he had not recovered consciousness.

PRESIDENT IMPROVED

(By Associated Press) Washington, July 22.—President Wilson was sufficiently recovered to-day from his indisposition to resume conferences with Republican Senators at the White House without objections from Rear Admiral Grayson, his personal physician.

Dr. Grayson said that the President was in no pain but that he still was extremely weak.

of the money counter, two feet from the cashier's head, the latter gathered up the money from the day's business and returned the satchel to the highwaymen. Both immediately left the bank and jumping into an automobile across the street from the institution, started in the direction of Mount Pleasant.

The robbery was the boldest that has ever been attempted in this section in recent years. Shortly before 3 o'clock an automobile containing two strange men was seen in the town. A few minutes later the car stopped along the sidewalk opposite the bank and two men got out and entered the bank. The first man was short in stature and wore a tan-colored raincoat and cap. He approached the money counter and thrust the muzzle of a revolver through the iron grating close to the head of Cashier Devilbiss. At the same time the second man, wearing a strip of white muslin across the lower part of his face, walked up to Assistant Cashier Stauffer, a few feet away, who was working on his books. The first man tossed a small hand satchel over the top of the iron grating and ordered Mr. Devilbiss to fill it with all the money in sight. "I want all the money you have, and I might have been expected from this great amount of rain as most of the farmers already had their wheat cut, shocked, and hauled in their barns. The men, however, who had not yet cut their wheat suffered considerable damage on account of the rain.

It is reported from the southern end of the county that the oats crop was not hurt to any extent by the storm but that the hay crop was badly damaged as in some places the water completely covered the fields.

Word from the state of Delaware says that the rain created havoc in the peach belt there and rotted a considerable quantity of the fruit. Adams County's fruit, however, was not damaged in the least according to one of the prominent growers.

The persistent fall of rain on the nine days between the twelfth and twenty first not only affected the crops to some extent but blocked traffic in sections of the county where the residents were unable to travel on account of the swollen condition of the streams.

FOOD HAS TAKEN DROP IN PRICE

Situation in Bucharest Better Since Arrival of American Organization.

Bucharest, July 22—When the American Red Cross and the American Relief Administration commenced work here several months ago, sugar was selling at $4.50 a pound, and almost impossible to obtain even at that price. To-day it is still very scarce, but can be purchased at somewhere around $1.00 due to the large relief shipments.

A "Hoover" ship with 900 tons of milk, about 3,000 tons of fat, and 3,000 tons of other foods, recently arrived at Constanza. Thousands of Rumanians participated in a great demonstration as the ship docked. These supplies did much to improve the situation.

Food is not the only commodity which has taken a fall. In the last month the price of thread has dropped from $6.00 to $1.50 a spool. Rumania is in great need of cloth and thread. A speculator who recently brought in a truckload of cotton thread realized a profit of $3,600 on his enterprise.

The high prices of necessities in this country are due in large measure to the crippled state of transportation. Tickets on the weekly train between Bucharest and Paris being a premium as high as $200.

VICTORY MEDALS DELAYED

War Department not Ready to Issue Badges.

Washington, July 22—The War Department has announced that it will not be ready to distribute Victory Medals for several months and that applications should not be made until formal notice is given that the medals are ready.

"The distribution of Victory Medals is delayed," the statement reads. "In view of the large number of applications now being received, attention is called to the fact that Victory Medals will not be ready for issue for several months. The method of distribution has not been determined, but it will probably follow the general scheme now being used for the distribution of the Victory Button. Wide publicity will be given to the adopted scheme when medals are ready for issuance. Applications for medals should not be made until that time."

WHEAT CROP NORMAL

In Cumberland County Says Carlisle Report.

Carlisle, Pa., July 22—Contrary to the opinion prevailing over the county at the time of wheat harvest, farmers of the county are now of the belief that the wheat crop of the county is about normal with that of previous years. The crop is not what was expected at the early part of the season, due to the hail and rain storms. In some parts of the county the grain was beaten almost flat, but in spite of this the county yield will be about normal.

Over the entire county the corn is in tassel and has a fine appearance. The wet weather while delaying much work being done on the oats is doing wonders for the corn.

In general the 1919 seasons for the farmers has been a good one and the predictions of those acquainted with the conditions are that when the last crops are gathered in, the net return to the farmer will be as large as ever, with the possibility that it may even be greater than that of last year.

SPORTING COLUMN

Catcher Weiser's long double to left center field driving across Cromer and Armorer in the second inning and his single scoring Cromer in the fourth were the two blows enabling First Ward to defeat Third 3-1 on Monday night in the second contest of the final race.

It was First Ward's second straight victory of this half.

Palmer and Roche a member of the Motor Transport Corps at Camp Colt, opposed each other on the mound and both twirled effective ball but blows by Weiser, who has made four hits in the last five times at bat, proved Roche's undoing.

Cromer opened the second inning by reaching first on an error and taking third on Armorer's safety. Armorer stole second and both scored on Weiser's double. Previous to scoring in the fourth Cromer singled and was sacrificed to second by Armorer.

Right Fielder F. Yingling, of Third Ward, saved his team from a shut out in the second inning when he singled to left center and scored Zincand who had hit. Dillman was on second at the time as the result of Armorer's boot and also tried to tally but was nipped at the plate by Deardorff's nifty peg.

Wright provided the fielding feature when he made a backward running catch of the versatile Buzz Hunter's fly and nabbed Sadler at first for a double.

Soldiers from the United States Hospital at Carlisle will be invited to the game Wednesday at Island Park, when Connie Mack's Athletics will play the Klein Chocolates Company team. Manager John Brackner will arrange to-day to have the soldiers brought from Carlisle to Harrisburg.

Inquiries regarding this game indicate a large attendance. It promises unusual interest as the Klein team will include several stars who have been up against the Athletics this season.

The four hours from 1:30 until 5:30 this afternoon will be the most important of the National League's 1919 season as John McGraw's New York Giants and Pat Moran's Cincinnati Reds play a double header on the Polo Grounds with first place at stake.

Weather permitting it is a safe estimate that 30,000 fans will attend as over 20,000 were turned away from the grounds on Monday.

A bout second only in importance to the Jack Dempsey-Jess Willard contest will be held in Minneapolis on Labor Day when Mike O'Dowd, world's middleweight champion, who has just returned from many months overseas duty, meets Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul wizard.

If word that Jack Johnson has been matched to fight Porky Flynn is true it will not surprise the followers of fistiana in the least if some promoter signs Jim Jeffries and Tom Sharkey for a return bout.

LAST WEEK FOR ACTION ON BILLS

Expect Governor to Make More Cuts in Appropriations. Ramsey Bill on List.

Governor William C. Sproul has entered upon the last week for acting on bills left with him by the last Legislature with decisions reached on nearly all of the charity and general appropriation bills, including those for the new State Capitol office building and the Memorial bridge, and his mind virtually made up on the seventy-five general bills in his hands. The governor will probably veto a dozen or so of the appropriations and make numerous reductions, Capitol Hill having the idea that he will be closer to $100,000,000 as an aggregate of appropriations than many believe. This means a total cut of about $5,000,000. He has already vetoed close to $1,250,000. Although people interested in hospitals have been in Harrisburg the Governor has declined to see any one but Legislature and Charity Board officials while acting on bills. This rule has been more rigorously enforced than ever before and many department chiefs did not get to see the Governor. The Executive Department was more like the office of a big business establishment than a Capitol. Men were there with data when called.

The plan of the Governor is to act on the appropriation bills finally the middle of the week. Meanwhile he will dispose of the bills reorganizing the Bureau of Compensation and establishing the bureau of rehabilitation; various school code corporation and other general bills. The Ramsey bill permitting sale of 2.75 liquor will be vetoed about the end of the week.

Learn to Swim.

Swim every day and you will not develop large, ugly muscles, but beautiful, smooth-working ones under a clean skin, a body that moves with grace, bright eyes and a smile that will carry you anywhere. One of the greatest medical experts in the country has classed swimming as the greatest of exercises, because it uses the whole muscular system, with moderate demand on nerve control.

NEWLY RICH SPEND MONEY FREELY

England's War Aristocracy Pay High Prices for Jewels and Furniture.

London, July 22—England's newly rich, the persons who have accumulated millions during the war and since, are buying at any price demanded, furniture from some of the ancient houses of the country, jewels from some of the looted palaces of Russia, and other continental countries, and paintings from anywhere if they bear the mark of time.

There is no lack of jewels for those who have the price and are willing to pay. Many beautiful pieces of jewelry, the history of which is not given by the dealer, but which experts say could only come from the wealthiest families of Russia, are finding their way into the market. Enormous prices are being asked and promptly paid, while the cost of ordinary stones, diamonds for instance, has risen to unheard of heights. Many old English families also are selling off their jewels.

Flowers and food for the elaborate entertainments which are beginning to mark the appearance of the newly rich are commanding fancy prices such as twenty five dollars for an orchid and $150 for a peach.

Automobiles are very scarce and expensive in Britain. Some of them command as much as $10,000 to $15,000, and they are models of three and four years ago, while new machines are almost unobtainable. The maker of the most famous English car turns out only about 800 each year, and it is said he has already booked his entire output for this year and next.

WHERE DID THEY STEAL THOSE BATZ?

300+ of the Indians is batting 333; Roger Peckinpaugh of the Yankees, 343, and Jim Thorne, 273. Last year Peckinpaugh batted .231; Johnston .227 and Thorpe .248. All three were big veterans and last year's batting figures just about represent their work for the years they've been in the major leagues. Maybe a change in pastures helped Thorpe. He went from the Giants to the Braves and immediately began to hit.

Pies and Tea—The American Y.W.C.A. In France Is Famous for Both of Them

The foundations of the Y. W. C. A. in France were laid not upon a rock as per Biblical instruction, but upon tea. Wherever it went it got out a tea table, set forth the cups, brewed some tea, found the lemons and then passed the sugar.

Hundreds of cups of tea were passed to nurses by directors of the nurses' clubs. The scene in this picture, snapped at Angers, France, has been repeated a thousand afternoons in every corner where the Blue Triangle followed the Stars and Stripes. This nurses' hut is built of red brick. Its rough beam ceiling is covered with pine branches and leaves from the forest outside its doors. It is located on the grounds of what was once an old monastery. But where the quiet brown-clad monks once chanted their prayers, jolly American nurses, in white aprons, red lined caps and jaunty caps, run back and forth from hospital ward to barracks.

And every afternoon they come to the hut for tea.

"OLD HEN" HAS KICK

New Liquid Refreshment Invented by Bibulous Chemists.

Media, Pa., July 22—"Old Hen," a new liquid refreshment with a kick of a mule, was tested out Saturday by the inventors, who had surreptitiously established their clandestine distillery in a vacant barn, near Rockdale. The concoction was labeled "Old Hen" because it required twenty-one days for the mixture to hatch. But the period of incubation was too slow for the thirsty experimenters, and on the tenth day, which was Saturday, they proceeded to sample the drink.

The bibulous chemists grew hilarious from quaffing the brew, attracted the owner of the barn, who, armed with a stout broom, entered the distillery and made a clean sweep of the mixers of "Old Hen."

The ingredients of the new mixture are said to be cornmeal, molasses, brown sugar and water, and if the maker cannot wait twenty-one days, ten days is enough to produce a kick—at least kick enough to get kicked out of the barn.

"Don't you think you could learn to love me?" "Prexy says I'm taking too many studies already," responded the fair co-ed.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Rheumatism Leaves

You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer in this vicinity that if two bottles of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and piteous and where the patient was helpless.

Allenru relieves at once. Immediately after you start to take it the good work begins. It searches out the uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretions and drives rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels.

It's marvelous how quickly it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two days, and even in cases where the suffering is most painful all traces disappear in a few days.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed People's Drug Store to guarantee it in every instance.

TO TEST DOG LAW

Suits are Brought in Courts in State.

Tests of the State dog license code of 1917 will be made in the courts of half a dozen eastern Pennsylvania counties at the coming fall terms because of activity of State Game Officials and State Police in enforcing the law. Many farmers were found not to have taken out dog license and on refusal to pay the cases were returned to court so that further tests can be made. Numerous arrests of aliens for owning dogs have also been made.

Willard STORAGE BATTERY SERVICE STATION

More or Less

Some folks think the more care a car owner gives his battery the more service it will render.

Others say "the less you bother with it the better."

Both are partly right and partly wrong.

We can show you some things that will make your battery serve better and last longer. At least drive around and let's get acquainted.

"Rubber, of Course" One Thing More

Ask any electrical man to name the best all-around insulation. Ten to one he'll say rubber.

It is the right answer, too, particularly where storage batteries are concerned. That's one of the things that three years use of Willard Threaded Rubber Insulation has proved.

Come in. Let us tell you more about Threaded Rubber. Ask, while here, for a copy of the booklet, "The Wick of the Willard."

Most car owners know that this is the place to have their batteries tested with a hydrometer.

—That it is the place to buy a Bone Dry Battery with Willard Threaded Rubber Insulation—which carries with it the evidence of battery newness.

—That it is the place to come for battery changing, repair, and a rental battery.

But, one thing more—it is the place to come, just as soon as you buy your new car, to have your battery registered and get the benefit of Willard 90-day battery insurance.

Drive in, whether you have bought a new car or not. Perhaps we can give you some battery information that will mean longer life to your battery and fuller use of your car.

READ THIS DEVOE PAINT GUARANTEE

Our stock of Devoe Paints, Oils and Varnishes, both exterior and interior, has just been renewed. Although the famous Devoe guarantee is well known to large paint users, we want every householder to know the offer made by this company through its dealers.

HERE IT IS—

Paint half your house DEVOE; paint the other half whatever you like.

If DEVOE doesn't take fewer gallons, and cost less money, we will make no charge for DEVOE.

If DEVOE doesn't wear a year or two years or three years longer—longer and better—we'll give you enough to paint it again.

Or, paint half your house lead-and-oil, the other half DEVOE. In three years the lead-and-oil half will be hungry for more paint, with DEVOE still sound.

If not, we'll give you enough for the whole house.

LAURA ANN

By MILDRED WHITE.

Constance and Prudence sat upon either side of the lamp in the pleasant little sitting-room. Constance was gazing absently at her magazine, while Prudence bent over her everlasting embroidery. Meeting her sister's visionary eyes, Miss Prudence laughed shortly.

"Are you wondering, too," she asked, "if we are going to spend the rest of our lives in this regulated plan? Our days and our years pass with the same duties at the same hours, and no innovation. In Willow Crest, of course, there is not apt to be anything 'new under the sun.' What are we going to do about it?"

"Do?" queried Miss Constance calmly. "Why, we must accept things as they are, my dear!"

"Thank goodness I have not your serene state of mind," exclaimed the vivacious sister, "and I intend to have something to think about in this town at least. I'm going to act upon a sudden idea and advertise for a boarder."

"But Prue," the plump little lady remonstrated, "we are not obliged to earn money."

"Money nothing," snapped Prudence. "I want companionship—appreciation. Who is there beside myself to enjoy my delicious jellies and give incentive to fresh culinary discoveries?"

"But—but the boarder might be a man," Constance complained.

"I hope so," her sister shamelessly agreed, "a man would certainly be an innovation in Willow Crest."

Constance's soft lips were pressed together in unfamiliar firmness. "That," she decidedly remarked, "I will not countenance. If you are determined in this most extraordinary whim, specify plainly that the applicant must be a woman."

And grimly Prudence obeyed.

The arrival of many responses to her advertisement caused a pleasurable excitement. Even Constance, vaguely disapproving, was forced to smile at her energetic sister's enthusiasm, and it was Constance who finally selected the "boarder."

She was a young woman from the city. "Alone in the world," her letter said appealingly. Since her mother's death she had passed through a series of boarding schools and was anxious for the atmosphere of a real home. "Her father," she added, "spent his time roaming about abroad."

Laura Ann Arnold was the name signed to the letter.

"Isn't she the prettiest child?" cried Miss Prudence.

"A sweet appearing girl, indeed," Constance admitted.

"Why," coaxed Laura Ann, "do you both wear your nice hair so tightly? In the city it would be arranged—oh, let me show you how." And she did.

The sisters looking with apologetic admiration at their transformed reflections in the glass, thanked Laura Ann warmly. The little boarder further went with the two to assist in the selection of new muslin dresses. "You've made us look so different," ventured Constance.

"So much—nicer," said Miss Prue. Laura Ann laughed, her dark eyes were dancing. "You sent for me because you wanted things different, you know," she reminded them.

And one summer evening when Laura Ann had taken a walk to the station she returned at supper time with a distinguished looking stranger.

"My father," she introduced carelessly.

"I thought—" stammered Prudence.

"that your father was abroad."

"He was," Laura Ann replied. "He has just returned. I did not tell of his coming, because I wanted it to be a surprise. If you could make room for him here until our future plans are arranged he would be glad."

The sisters found that they could make room. Constance in listening to the recollections of Laura Ann's father, found much of interest to herself. And many of those now far-scattered schoolmates had been mutual friends of both.

A pretty color came to Constance's cheeks as she talked. Sometimes Laura Ann stopped long enough beneath the trees where the two were wont to sit, to tuck a flower into Miss Constance's loosened hair.

"I'd like her for a stepmother," she confided to Miss Prue.

"It looks as though you were going to get her," Prudence dryly replied.

"I hope so," Laura Ann confessed, "because, you see, though I've never mentioned it, there's a boy in the city called Jerry. We love each other. But our fathers selfishly tried to keep us both, because they were alone. Jerry's mother died when he was born. She was an excellent housekeeper, Jerry's mother, and his father wants Jerry to find that kind of wife. I'm not much for jellies and that sort of thing," Laura Ann regretted.

Then, with a smiling satisfied glance toward the couple beneath the trees, she went to write a note. "Dear Jerry," she penned briefly, "come out in the car tomorrow to spend the day, and—be sure to bring your dad. I want him specially."

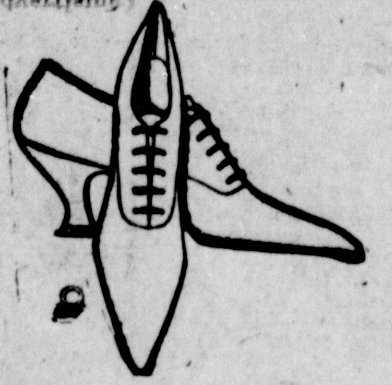

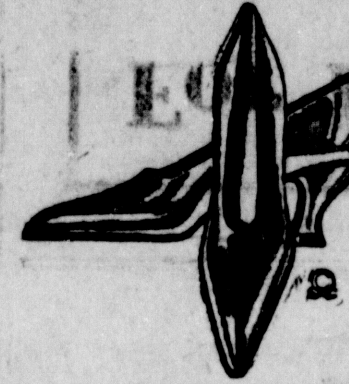

Laura Ann looked tenderly up at Miss Prue.

"You'd better get your nicest cakes and jellies ready," she said. "You are going to have company, dear, tomorrow."
